

Susannah Wettone

Music Therapist

Susannah Wettone graduated as a music therapist from Anglia Polytechnic University in 1999, completing her MA in music therapy in 2001.

She has worked with adults and children in a variety of settings, such as schools, hospitals and residential homes, both employed and self-employed.

She has worked for Key Changes Music Therapy (formerly Hampshire MusicSpace) since 2004. Her main areas of experience are autistic spectrum conditions, pre-school children and, more recently, music therapy for parents and children.
